

LIFT Livelihoods and Food Security Fund newsletter

November 2019

Latest news

LIFT Conflict Framework published

The LIFT Conflict Framework outlines an approach to conflict sensitivity and conflict analysis that will strengthen and complement existing LIFT practices.

Read more here.

LIFT's impact on Myanmar's microfinance sector emphasised at inaugural Microfinance Forum

LIFT's catalytic impact on the Myanmar microfinance industry was highlighted at the first edition of the Myanmar Microfinance Forum in Nay Pyi Taw on 5 November 2019.

Read more here.

Implementing partners focus on communication at LIFT workshop

LIFT welcomed 50 people from its implementing partners' communication teams at the UNOPS office to discuss how to better work together.

Read more here.

UK International Development Minister and delegation briefed on LIFT and partners' work first hand in Rakhine

A high-level UK delegation visited Sittwe to receive a thorough overview of LIFT's work in Rakhine.

Read more here.

In focus

Changing the face of migration and money in Myanmar

Yay Kyi Yar ("Towards clearer waters") is a LIFT-funded radio, television and digital media programme implemented in Myanmar by BBC Media Action since 2016.

Read more here.

Meet May Thet Khaing, working for food safety in Myanmar

May Thet Khaing is a laboratory technician at the Food Industries Development Supporting Laboratory (FIDSL) who tests food items such as fortified rice kernels.

Read more here.

Call for concept notes

Announcing a call for concept notes: South East Myanmar Programme

LIFT's programming in the South East is guided by the LIFT strategy 2019-2023. LIFT's programme aims to lay the groundwork for and catalyse including, climate-resilient and sustainable development in the region.

Read more here.

Visual story

From 2015 to 2019, Pact Myanmar implemented the project MYCulture in partnership with World Fish in four townships in the Dry Zone.

See the video here.

Subscribe

Unsubscribe from this list

Please send comments or questions to: lift@unops.org

Read more about us on https://www.lift-fund.org/